

Classmate Obituary – Jennings Anderson Jr. (16 March 1968)

Colona Marine Killed In California Accident

A Colona Marine who was wounded twice during 19 months of service in Vietnam has been killed in an automobile accident.

Lance Cpl. Jennings R Anderson Jr., 19, died early Saturday morning after the accident, which happened near Camp Pendleton, Calif.

He had been home on leave after returning from Vietnam and had gone to Camp Pendleton only a few days ago.

The body will be brought to the Wendt Bros. Funeral Home, Moline, for services and burial in National Cemetery, Arsenal Island.

He was born in Cherry Valley, Ark., and enlisted in the Marines Corps immediately after graduation in 1966 from United Township High School, East Moline.

Surviving are his father, Jennings Anderson Sr. of Colona; his mother, Mrs. Vera Mickie of Rock Island; two brothers, Carl and James of Rock Island, and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bullock of Cherry Valley.