

Teacher Obituary - Linda Wadsager (4 March 2008)

Linda J. Wadsager, 65, Silvis, died Tuesday, March 4, 2008, at Genesis Medical Center, Illini Campus, Silvis.

Visitation is 4-7 p.m. Friday at Van Hoe Funeral Home, East Moline. At Linda's request, after visitation, her body will be cremated and inurnment will be 2 p.m. Monday at Wesling Park East Mausoleum, Indianapolis, Ind. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the athletic department at United Township High School or to the All Animal Aid Humane Society.

Linda Bolmer was born May 29, 1942, in Indianapolis. She was a loving and devoted daughter to her parents, Herman and Cora Solbrig Bolmer. Linda dedicated herself to ensuring the highest quality of life for her mother, who had been in failing health for many years prior to her passing in December of 2007.

Linda positively impacted the lives of many through her 34 years of teaching and 20 years of coaching at United Township High School.

Linda was a true and faithful friend who consistently went out of her way for others, bringing a generosity of spirit and a wicked good sense of humor to everything she did.

An active member of Christ United Methodist Church, East Moline, she played in the Hand Bell Choir and enjoyed Sunday services.

Linda was an animal lover and "Mom" to her many "critters" over the years. She made the best chocolate chip cookie – you can ask anybody.

Survivors include her brother, Herman J. Bolmer, Fostoria, Ohio; a niece, Heather Bolmer, and a nephew, Eric Bolmer, both of Houston, Texas.

Online condolences may be left for the family at www.vanhoe.com.
